Summer 2021

A Day in the Garden

Nick and Penny are excited for summer. They have lots of ideas of how they want to spend their summer vacation, but the amusement park is what they are looking forward to the most. Nick and Penny decide that this week is the best time to buy their tickets to the amusement park. They do some research and find that a ticket to the amusement park costs $12 per person. After doing the math, they realize they need to make $24 total.

They ask their mother, Di, for advice, and she suggests they ask if any of the neighbors need help with any chores. Nick and Penny discover that one of their neighbors is going out of town for the week and would be willing to pay them to water her garden for $4 a day. Nick and Penny agree, and they each take turns watering the neighbor's garden to keep her plants alive. At the end of the week when the neighbor returns, they give Nick and Penny their money. Nick and Penny head home to count their earnings.

Nick does the math: $$4 \times 7 = \28

They use the $24 dollars to buy their tickets to the amusement park and put the remaining $4 in their piggy bank for their next adventure!
